A railroad to the Frisco.

Railroad shops will come.

Put up a good ticket and it will win from top to bottom.

Dr. ENLOR seems to be the favorite for the legislature. Everybody says he can be elected.

It is not the river route that we need. It will help some, but a line connecting this city with Hancock or Lebanon is the crying necessity of the hour.

From every part of the county we hear something of interest, and if the convention nominates a good ticket the city will be the beneficiary of the ticket will suffer.

Wake up and strike for future greatness and prosperity. Nothing will give it but a railroad connecting this city with the Frisco. Let not the hours slumber in forgetfulness. Men make cities.

A strong effort is being made to induce Wm. W. Wagner to accept the nomination for collector. He is a good man and the strongest in the party, and our advice is, insist on his nomination and he can't refuse.

The revival of river traffic is one of the encouraging signs of the future. It is one of the straws to show that river improvement is a growing question. Water transportation is cheaper than rail, and all river towns will have that advantage as manufacturing centers.

Mr. Gould has decided to postpone the construction of the river route. The people of Jefferson City cannot afford to permit the darkness of destiny to cast its shadow over the bright and glorious future of our city, and no time should be lost in pressing forward the Hancock extension of the A. T. & S. F.

The democrats in the county convention told the city people that under the rules of the farmers alliance of Missouri they could not vote for a lawyer or a banker if put on the ticket. All they asked for was one place on the ticket, that of candidate for the legislature. But the thing had been fixed against them and the city boys took not only the legislature but everything in sight. They offered the country the little old office of probate judge, but the question was, how could a farmer go on a ticket that his order would not allow him to support? Mr. Fowler saw where they had put him and refused to sell out. This is a bad year for democrats.

Mills forgot to discuss our pyramid of democratic defaulting treasurers. We have not forgotten them, and fearing that the people, like Mills, might overlook the matter, we desire to establish the fact that Peake still holds the top down.

The establishment of the Kettering box factory is an enterprise that merits the good will of every citizen. It is a move that points in the right direction. He will employ 25 persons in the business, and turn out some 3000 boxes per day. During the past few years not less than $1,000 per month has been sent to other cities for paper boxes. This money will now remain here and will find its way into every channel of business. One year ago not a factory existed outside of the walls of the prison, in our city, while now there are at least 200 people employed in those in operation. To give an idea of what is being done in that direction it would pay anyone to visit the various enterprises now in full working order. The Standard Co. leads with some 80 persons, the Giesecke Co. with 40, the Tribune Co. with 35, Kettering will employ 25, Pohl Brick Co. 20, Jefferson Brick Co. 20, Dulle Mill Co. 20, Simenson-Walter Iron Co., Roosen Bottling Works, Wagner & Bro's Brewery Co. Franz Brewing Co., Tanner machine shops and others all employing from 5 to 10 persons. We do not believe that any city in state of like population can make anything like as good a showing, and it is only a beginning. If we can get a railroad south of us the population of this city will double in five years.

The republican state convention meets on the 28th.

With the suburbs and prison population we have 8,500 people.

The city council has directed the city attorney to prepare an ordinance to extend the city limits. Better late than never. We first suggested it in April, three months before the census enumerator went to work.

Mr. BLAND entertained his audience with a discourse on Mr. Reed's ruling and emptied the hall. Mr. Bland need not bother himself about the rules after this session, in fact the rules will cease to interest him after the election.

Mr. PLUM hit the boys on both sides between the eyes. With Blaine firing reciprocity from the outside and Plumb shooting emiser and grape from the inside, McKinley will have to come down and out of that tariff tree. Readjust the tariff but don't increase it.

Kansas is stirring things up in congress, and Kansas is about right. There is no necessity for an increase in the tariff, and the republicans did not so understand it in the last campaign. A readjustment of the tariff rates is required, and that is what the party expects congress to do. No increase in rates.

The union soldier says he can't vote for McIntire; the alliance men say they can't vote for him and there are other democrats that won't vote for him. How, then, does he expect to be elected? Republicans, stand guard, make no promises: If you stand firm the next representative from Cole county will not be a democrat.

JOHN L. ERWIN.

The republican congressional convention met in this city on the 13th inst., and nominated John L. Erwin of Callaway county, for congress against Richard P. Bland. Mr. Erwin was born in Harrison county, Ohio, July 28, 1840. On the 9th day of August, 1862 he enlisted in the Union army and served until September 26, 1865. He moved to Callaway county at the close of the war and engaged in farming, which he has followed with great success up to this day. His attention has been devoted entirely to agriculture and stock raising. He is a good speaker and was state lecturer in the Institute work of the State Board of Agriculture. He is now vice-president from Missouri of the National Dairy Association of the World's fair, and is one of the foremost members of the farmers alliance. Mr. Erwin having resided in Callaway county for the past 25 years and is one of the best known men in the county, and being personally popular ought to run well in that county. He will make a strong canvass, and with the aid of a united party will likely surprise Mr. Bland in November.

Protection for Farm Products.

Contention that the tariff imposed on imported agricultural products is of no avail by way of protection to American farmers will no more stand the test of facts and figures than most other assertions of the industrial attorneys for free trade.

Under the existing law a tariff is imposed on the principal farm products, as follows: Wheat, 20 cents per bushel; corn, 10 cents; barley and rye, each 10 cents; potatoes, 15 cents; live stock (other than breeding) twenty per cent on value. The effect of these charges, according to the great apostle of free trade, who never lets slip the opportunity for reiterating his creed, is that:

Tariff taxation is not limited to the consumer of imported articles, but the duties imposed upon such articles permit a corresponding increase in price to be laid upon the domestic productions of the same kind.

Every sensible business man, with the price lists of the different trade centers before him, can see that this is not true; while it is a fact that the tariff rates above quoted serve as a check to an influx of foreign goods, products which would, in the absence of such barrier, seriously embarrass market prices in the United States. Foreign producers pay the tariff on such of these products as they send here, and hence cannot afford to sell them as cheaply as they could and would sell if permitted to bring their products here free. What they thus pay in the way of tariff goes into the public treasury, and by so much reduces the amount that otherwise would be raised from our own citizens.

But notwithstanding the fact that foreign farmers are taxed for the privilege of selling their products in our markets, they did send here during the last fiscal year staple farm products to the value of nearly $14,000,000, viz: Breadstuffs, $6,034,272, vegetables, $1,455,354, live animals, $3,270,277. After paying over two and three quarter million dollars as tariff, these were sold in competition with the products of American farms.

It is with such facts as these that free trade attorneys should be confronted when pleading with the farmer for his vote against the policy of protection for American labor. The American farmer can no more successfully compete against the cheap grown wheat of India and Russia than the American manufacturer can compete with his foreign competitor in making cheap goods. The tariff of 20 cents per bushel removed, and the price of American grown wheat would come down, or foreign grown wheat would be sold in its stead. Proof of this lies in a comparison of market quotations from the commercial centers of Europe and the United States. And farmers will find more profit in such comparison than in listening to the confusing diatribes of free trade advocates.

In the State of Mis- ) souri, vs. Sarah Davis, ) Defendant.
Now at this day comes the Plaintiff herein by A. M. Hough, Esq., his attorney, and it appearing to the court from the return of the sheriff that the above named defendant, Sarah Davis, is a non-resident of the State of Missouri, and has absconded or absented herself from her usual place of abode in this state so that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon her. It is therefore ordered by the court that the plaintiff be notified by publication, that plaintiff has commenced a suit against her in this court, the object and general nature of the petition filed in said cause being the recovery of the amount of the State of Missouri against certain real property owned by said defendant, and fully described in said petition as follows: Lots seven (7) eight (8) and nine (9) in block 10 in St. Thomas, Mo., for certain taxes, interest and costs levied upon said real property as in said petition fully set forth; and that unless the said Sarah Davis be and appear at this court at the next term of the court, to wit, on the 1st day of December, A. D. 1890, and on or before the third day of said term, and answer the petition to the petition in said cause, the same will be taken as confessed, and judgment rendered accordingly. And it is further ordered that a copy hereof be published in the ST. LOUIS REPUBLICAN, a newspaper published in said county and state, for four weeks successively, published at least once a week, the last insertion thereof to be at least fifteen days before the commencement of the next term of said court.

A Pretty Woman's Secret.

Fear of discovery, when she resorts to false hair and dye, is a source of constant anxiety to her. The very persons from whom she desires to hide the want of her charms are the ones most likely to make her discovery. But there is no reason why she should not retain and retain all the beauty of her hair that was her birthright. Let her use AYER'S Hair Vigor, and not only will her hair cease to fall out, but a new growth will appear where the scalp has been long bald, and locks that are turning gray, or have actually grown white, will return to their pristine luster and brilliancy of color.

Hereditary Baldness.

Gen. J. M. AYER, of Lowell, Mass., has had 27 years of experience in the treatment of hereditary baldness. One of his patients, Mr. H. H. Vinton, of Boston, writes: "I have been bald for several years, and have tried many remedies, but have not been able to get any relief. I have used AYER'S Hair Vigor, and have found it to be the only remedy that has given me any relief. I have now a full growth of hair, and I am very much pleased with the result."

Ayer's Hair Vigor

is not a dye, but a healthful stimulant of the roots and color giving, and restores to its original color hair that is turning gray.

Mrs. Catherine Deane, of Lowell, Mass., writes: "I have been bald for several years, and have tried many remedies, but have not been able to get any relief. I have used AYER'S Hair Vigor, and have found it to be the only remedy that has given me any relief. I have now a full growth of hair, and I am very much pleased with the result."

is not a dye, but a healthful stimulant of the roots and color giving, and restores to its original color hair that is turning gray.

Notice of Final Settlement.
Notice is hereby given, that the undersigned executor of the estate of J. B. Kaiser, deceased, will make final settlement of their accounts with said estate as such executors at the next term of the Probate court of Cole county, Missouri, to be holden at City of Jefferson, in said county, on the 2nd Monday of August, A. D. 1890.

Excursion Rates to Eastern Resorts.

The attention of the traveling public is called to the advantages of the Ohio and Mississippi Railway as a route to New York, Philadelphia, Washington, D. C., Baltimore, Cincinnati and Louisville, as well as to the numerous health and pleasure resorts of the East.

Both morning and evening lines of Pullman Vestibule Buffet Sleepers are run from St. Louis to New York via the above named route. Deer Park and Oakland the twin mountain resorts of the Alleghenies, are on the direct route of these through sleepers to the East.

For Lake Champlain and Niagara Falls our trains connect in Cincinnati with trains of the Erie route which run through to New York via Lakewood on the southern border of Lake Champlain, being the only line from the west running a sleeper of any kind to any point on Lake Champlain.

For White Sulphur and other healing springs of the Virginias, Richmond, Old Point Comfort, Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, our trains make direct connection in Union depot, Cincinnati, with the "F. & V. Limited" of the Chesapeake and Ohio route.

Summer excursion tickets to all the eastern resorts are now on sale in our office at reduced rates.

Our rates to New York and other eastern points are lower than by any other through car route from St. Louis, while our accommodations are unsurpassed.

To those who contemplate a trip east this summer we will be glad to furnish descriptive pamphlets of the different resorts, reserve sleeping car berths and furnish any additional information as to rates, time and routes.
